OVERVIEW:

Our Client is selling their sought-after private career college in the heart of the popular downtown Vancouver market in British Columbia, Canada. It is a market-driven vocational college that offers +10 PTIB-approved Certificates, Diplomas, and Co-Op Programs in business management, hospitality, education, graphic & visual design, and ESL. First and foremost, the college is Provincially designated (“accredited”) as a Category 1 college by The Private Training Institutions Branch (PTIB) with the Ministry of Advanced Education. It holds the highly sought-after Designated Learning Institution Number from Education Quality Assurance (EQA), meeting provincial requirements to issue study permits for international student enrollment. They also have StudentAidBC (SABC) designation allowing local students eligibility for financial aid. Its instructors are highly trained professionals with academic expertise and years of practical experience in their respective fields, ensuring students receive a comprehensive education and successful careers in their chosen fields.

>> Ready To Go Turn-Key Entry Into The Canadian Career College Market With The DLI #

The key for new ownership is that the college has full designation (accreditation), allowing owners to ramp up currently approved and new programs, recruit international students, relocate the campus and/or set up branch campuses, and rebrand (as needed). This is a ready-to-go opportunity for buyers seeking immediate entry into the B.C. market with all the boxes checked. All the building blocks are already in place, typically taking up to five years to attain. Everything is ready for a buyer to benefit from a premium, turn-key British Columbia-accredited career college in the lucrative Canadian market.
